

When I Do What's Right I Feel Good

Words and Music by

Margie Lindsay

When I do what's right I feel good.

I feel happy
when I do what I should.

The scriptures tell me so,
and in my heart I know.

When I do
what's right I
feel good.

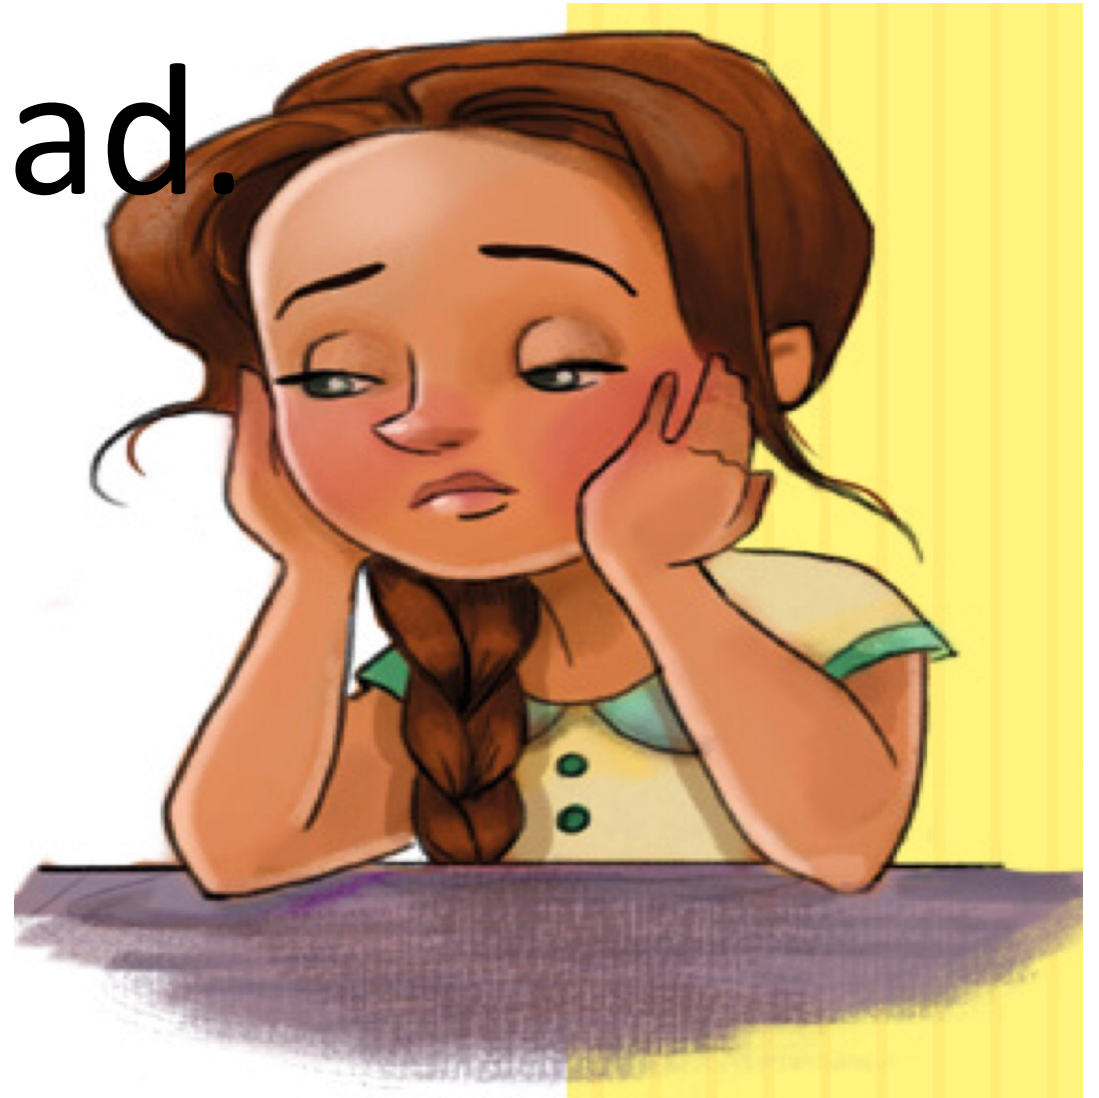

But when I

do what's wrong I feel bad.

When I don't obey I always feel sad.

And no excuse I make can take away the ache.

When I do what's wrong I feel bad.

So I will do what's right and feel good.
I'll feel happy
when I do what I should.

I'll have a happy heart, if I will do my part,

so I'll do what's right and
feel good.
